European Nation Refuses Bid to Paris Meeting: Czechs in Same Camp

LONDON, Friday, July 11 (AP) - The Moscow radio said early today Finland had declined to participate in the Paris economic conference, thus lining up eight nations behina Russia in rejecting U.S. Secrecary of State George C Marshall's proposal for putling Europe on its economic feet

If the broadcast is confirmed, Finland will have joined Czechslovakia, Poland, Yugoslavia Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Albania in spurning invitations sent to 22 European nations by Great Britain and France to attend the Paris sesgions opening tomorrow

The small Baltic state announced its refusal, according to the Moscow radio, after Czechoslovakia last night backed down from previous decision to participate.

The Finnish refusal apparently completed the division of Europe in o tv o economic camps - a group of 14 'Western states swinging to "Eastern" group which followed the 000,000 income tax cut bill, just as he vetoed the last one Brush-French leadership and the lead of Soviet Foreign Minister V M Moloto, who quit the preliminary, three-power talks in Paris the past week. At that time Molotov angrily denounced the Marshall plan for the reconstruction of Europe and the manner in which British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault believed it should have been put into operation.

Molotov contended British-French proposals that each European state take stock of its ability to implement its own reconstruction before determining how much outside aid it required, constituted an infringement upon the sovereignty of the emailer European countries

The states which have accented the invitation and plan to have representatives in Paris by tomorrow are Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Greece Fire. Iceland, Italy. Luxembourg, Norway The Netherlands, Por-(Continued on Page Twelve)

HOMES PROJECT DRAWS PROTEST OF RESIDENTS

Singer Development Under Fire at Board Hearing On Zoning Variance Plea

Claims that the proposed erection of 20 homes in two 10-unit rows on the former Snyder lumber yard plot, between Chestnut and King freets east of Hanover, by the Singer Realty company would result in congestion dangerous to health of the occupants were made last night ar borough hall when the zoning board of adjustment neard the application of Louis Singer for a variance from the provisions of the zoning ordinance. This section of the West ward is now classified R-4

The hearing on the application attracted about 20 residents of that section. There were no voices raised in support of the contention of Singer that the development would be a boon to the community in that it would provide much-needed housing for ex-servicemen. Attorney John H. Longaker, who appeared as counsel for 41 signers of a petition protesting against granting the variance, called on former Burgess Lewis P. Sweeney, of 143 Chestnut street; W. Brooke Fryer, 130 Chestuut street, and Leonard Keffer, 125 Chestnut street, to represent the petitioners and present their views concerning the project. Sweeney said he was speaking in behalf of persons who would reside in the homes. He maintained there would be overcrowding, with a danger that eventually it would develop into a slum. Fryer said the congestion would be dangerous. He explained there likely would be 80 persons living in the 20 houses with no place for the children to play. He added that school facilities are now imadequate in that section of the borough and here would be further overcrowding f the homes were erected. Keffer said the row houses would reate a fire hazard pointing out there would be no avenue leading through the two rows from Chestnut to King streets.

Horace Y Scidel chaliman of the Zoning commission. spoke against granting a variance. He said. In every instance where row houses have been planned, they have been opposed by resident of clared, "This project shows a very crowded condition in prospect"

He america that the soning erdinance prescribes a minimum living space per family of 900 square feet. The plans for the Singer project show a living space of 580 square fret, as the homes would be 16 by 29 feet with a four-foot yard space at the rear of each Seidel said he represented the Transfiguration Lutheran church, which is opposing the project. To the board members, he said, "I ask you to deny this variance" Singer appeared before the board, claiming that he is trying to solve the nousing sciortage. He presented plans which show he

Tax Refunds Cut Nation's Surplus

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, July 10-Capatol Hull Republicans seeking a new, 1948 tax reduction measure suspect that President Truman and shrewd Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder have manipulated federal funds to strengthen their argument that this is the wrong time to require Uncle Sams income But the operation was performed so cleverly, and with so much substance of justilication, that the opposition hardly can raise its voice in pro-The final surplus ending June 30 was only $753,787,660, or far John W. Snyder below GOP expectations of approximately $2,000,000,000 Mr. Truman's estimate in the early Spring had placed it at $1,250,-000,000, a figure which Mr. Snyder then declared to be too optimistic.

In view of the fact that he was correcting - in fact, reputating the Chief Executive—the Capinet member's statement caused general wonderment at the TRICK: But it now appears that Mr. Snyder had a trick up his sleeve for meeting the Republicans' arguments that the state of the Treasury, both now and at the end of the 1948 fiscal year, would permit a tax cut. The St. Louis banker dished out federal funds at a breakneck rate in the few months before June 30.

He paid back $992,000,000 more in tax refunds than he had in the preceding year, when the Democrats controlled Congress. He took no steps to collect a similar amount on overdue, 1947 tax bills.

CREDIT: Although British purchases in this country have been declining steadily because of the rise in prices, London suddealy decided that it wanted to draw $550,000,000 on its remaining credit from the recent loan before the end of the 1947 fiscal year. At the same time, the Commodity Credit Corporation came along with a request for $200,000,000 from the Treasury to finance its Cuban sugar operations. CCC has been borrowing from the private money market.

The government also found it necessary to spend more money for routine purposes in June, while Congress was considering the Truman veto. Last, and perhaps most important, at Harvard Secretary Marshall unveiled an aid-Europe program that is estimated to cost at least $15.-909,000,000 for the next several years.

Thus, by wielding the financial brush in such a manner as to paint an unfavorable picture, the Administration ing out flickers. He was one of the rounded up enough votes in the House original Keystone Kops, and later to support the tax veto by the narrow margin of two.

DEMORALIZATION: A far-reaching LORNA P., 19, is in nurse's training reform in the historic method of appropristing funds for the executive depart-"Dr. Crane, I must get some advice, ments has been advanced quietly as a result of the demoralization caused by Congressional failure to provide money before the end of the fiscal year on The blockade of ten important appropriation measures has had a disastrous effect on the morale and operations of the federal government. Employes anticipating pay cuts or possible economy discharges cannot perform efficiently; some do not even go through the motions. Essential projects-irrigation, reclamation, agricultural conservation, the building of planes etc.—are halted for fear the funds for completion mught not be forthcoming.

Under the system of annual appropriations, this condition occurs every Suring when the big, money oils are under consideration. It amounts to a temporary breakdown at Washington.

CONTROL: The proposed change calls for appropriating executive funds for a two-year or three-year period, instead of for only 12 months. It is believed that this program would give Congressional to provide for more efficient use

It might not be possible to apply this system to the Army and Navy, especially in view of the remarkable advances in the mechanics and tools of warfare. But it is believed that it could be done with respect to more routine operations - the Treasury, Postoffice, Agriculture. Commerce, Interior Departments and many of the independent agencies. Principal objection on the part of Congressional financial experts is that the two-year or three-year period of appropriating might loosen their control on RKO offered her a long-term conthe use and expenditure of federal funds. nual creckup on the tederal cashiers and learning to ride a horse for the

ALL AROUND THE TOWN Biggest in State... Deer in Pottstown...

NEW POSITION — Howard S. Reif-anyder, 452 North Charlotte street, who has just relinquished his retail grocery length of High street of an ornate dining business, has obtained a position with car the other day. It was 60 feet long, John M. Christ, groceryman of Reading, spread over two traffic lanes. The car was taken to West High street, above the Colebrookdale bridge, where it was delivered to Art Sizer, veteran restaurateur House of Representatives, passed through and owner of Art's Diner. The dining car is a model of the industry, is the largest in Pennsylvania, according to COMPANY A LEAVES - Captain Sizer. It was manufactured in Harrison, Schuyler's Company A, of the Sixth regi- N. J., required 12 hours to be hauled here ment, left Pottstown yesterday morning by a huge Mack truck. The car has newest transparent glass bricks, is trimmed inside with blue and mory. Stainless steel sets off its qualities. The car has 22 stools, several booths, large center tables, and it's the ultra-ultra in every respect among dining cars . . .

ART SIZER, the proprietor, has been operating a dining car at the present location for only 18 months, but has been in the food business for 20 years. He started serving food on the Pacific Coast, was so good that he became Movie Star Rosalind Russell's chef. He catered to Bing Crosby at the crooner's club house. His birthplace is Olathe, Kansas, a 3500-population town that also produced Buddy Rogers, husband of Mary Pickford. Sixer "got stuck" in Pottstown when He came East from California to visit his ill mother. She lived here with Sizer's brother. It was wartime, gasoline rationing was on, and Sizer couldn't get enough gasoline to get out of town. So he settled here, is most happy about it, because Pottstown treated him right, he said. Now he's giving this town the largest dining car in the State! Sizer's married, has three daughters, two of whom are married. This week has been a tough one on the restaurateur. He became a grandfather on Sunday, got his new car two days later. Sixer says be doesn't know which arrival gave him most anxiety!

DRESERVE - Deer recently sighted in Douglassville made news stories, for town proper! Mrs C. C. Burdan, Rosedale, reported a pair of deer was frolicking on her lawn earlier this week . . . ## 100F Canton Plans For Palmyra Meet

A discussion on arrangements to hold a field meet at Palmyra Sept. continued to work at the Wash-20 was held at last night's session of the Patriarche Militant, Canton No. 6, IOOP, in the Odd Fellow's home at 200 King street.

The meet will be attended by members and auxiliary members from the Pirst brigade district covering Southeastern Pennsylvania, It will include a parade and drill exhibitions in competition for prizes. A delegation from the local organimition will travel to Butler Sept. 27 to put on degree work and assist in the institution of a new canton

Refreshments were served following last night's meeting, which was presided over by Charles Kramer, captain in charge.

Also held in the Odd Fellows home last night was a meeting of the Home association, during which time discussion on maintenance and upkeep of the building was led by Hiram Ibach, president.

It was announced that a large neon sign, 12 feet in height, and 5 feet wide, would be installed sometime in the Fall. The sign is to read "Odd Fellows Temple."

rooms. The fellows can't take time off for a swim or stop for a cool drink along a mountain trail. And the only way thay can get to see Rockefeller Center the Thousand Islands, or Pike's Peak, is to come across a photo of them in a history textbook.

Some of these students breeze through a math course in two weeks; others take a long time. Some of them concentrate five hours a night on one subject, then take another when they're finished. There is no tuition cost. The Veteran's Administration handles that angle. All they have to do is attend classes and burn gray matms making boilers, driving buses or cashing checks.

According to Dr. Frank H. Haiston, superintendent of Potistown schools, the vocational school expects the return of 200 ex-GI's in Beptmeber to continue their education. These men are called apprentices, and will be taking subjects relating to their daytime jobs.

New courses are constantly being added, the latest being electronics. Many students need credit in one or two subjects se that they may be accepted for college work. At least a dosen colleges will be represented this Fall by current vocational sixdents. Some of them include Temple university, Millersville State Teachers college, Villamova, University of Pennsylvamin and Pennsylvania State.

Man Admits Keeping Money Meant for Blind

A tall young man stood before nerly of 435 KING STREET, died Magistrate Nathan Beifel today nomination papers in the State elecesterday morning in the Twin; and admitted, with downcast eyes, tion bureau to place their names on inden home. Churchtown, where that he had solicited money for the ballot for the Sept. 19 primary ne had been a patient since April. the blind and kept it for himself. A rueful neadshake was the acknowledgement of Joseph Worthington, 20, that he had visited more

> "Do you mean to say that you delicerately and maliciously robbed the blind?" Beifel asked.

"Ye," mumpled Worthington.

"I know of no criminal as low or suctions as the type you've admitted yourself to be," the magistrate said. Berfel held Worthington in $1500 bail for further hearing July 21 on charges of collecting money under false pretenses after an official of the Pennsylvania Associa-Lon for the Blind testified Worthington was dismissed as a salesman

Two Men Released

NEW YORK, July 10 (2) - Two business men, quizzed by police 24 hours in the strangulation death of Mrs. She.la Mannering, blond actress, were released late today after Mrs James Fisher and son, Philabeing directed to appear before a New York grand jury next

> Their release came just as an attorney for one of the men, Jacob Rosen, 60-year-old textile manufacturer, obtained a Supreme court order directing that Rosen be proqueen in court tomorrow for a hearing as to whether he should be freed on a habeas corpus writ. The attorney, Harris Steinberg.

centified Rosen as one of the two men neld in District Attorney Frank S. Hogan's office and said "his namily is frantic" because members were nor permitted to communicate with Rosen. Hogan gave no reason for the grand jury subpoenas, nor did he name the men Indications were, however, that the all-out police investigation would turn to other leads in the case which broke yesterday with discovery of the nude body of the attractive 49-year-old actress in her modish West o7th street apartment.

A high police official said Rosen's account of his movements Tuesday afternoon, when police believe Mrs Mannering was slain, had been corroborated in all details by his business associates.

The two men questioned at length by Hogan's staff were found listed in one of the actress' address books. police said. More than 50 persons whose names were in the books have been questioned and others will be picked up, Deputy Chief Inspector Edward J. Mulling said.

President May Call Congress Session in Fall To Back Marshall Plan

WASHINGTON, July 10 (P)-American diplomatic officials said tenight Czechoslovakia's decision nor to attend the Paris economic conference is the "crucest demonstration, yet" of Soviet control ever the governments of Eastern Europe In spite of the Czech withdrawa!

officials were determined to go through with the Marshall plan for European recovery-of which the Paris conference, called to draft an international economic program, 15 the first essential step From President Truman himself came fresh evidence of the Government's intention to take any necessarv action to make good the plan.

Mr. Truman told a news conference that if it becomes necessarv, Congress will be called back to Washington next Fall for a special session on the Marshall plan.

But he added that he does not see any necessity for such a call in the immediate future

In response to a question, the President said he cannot make any recommendations for carrying out the plan until he sees the results of the Paris conference

To some responsible authorities this means that if the conference nations succeed in producing a program of mutual aid which depends on immediate American action, the President may call Congress back to Wasnington to consider such

The decision of the Czech government not to attend the Paris meeting—which leaves the conference strictly a western European affair-reverses its previous decision to be present.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your hidneys contain 15 uriles of tiny tabes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with imarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your ladneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumate pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, hendaches and dizzness.

Truman Loses No Sleep Over Charge Cave Operator Presidency May Be in for Scandal

TULSA, Okla. July 10 (P)-Former Rep Roger C Slaughter, Missouri Democrat, whom President Truman selped to defeat for renomination the past year, charged today "scandal 'nreatens" the presidency, a statement the President said left Slatishter, speaking before the Tulsa Chamber of Commerce's puolic affairs forum, assailed the Pendergast Democratic organization of Kansas City and declared Mr Truman's request of it for help in the 1946 Democratic primary was "the public admission of a partnership nat has prought the presidency unto disrepute'

The President's reaction to LAKE SUCCESS, July 10 (49) -Slaughter's remarks came at his Russia failed today in an effort to Washington press conference He plock consideration of Austria's apsaid ne considered the source of olication for membership in the the speech and added it didn't Worry nim any.

> Slaughter said he considered the President "personally an honest and honorable man, but that "like Grant and Harding, he has been misled by false friends, and has likewise been the vietim of his own-impetuosity '

After he was informed of the President's comment on the statement in his prepared rext, the former congressman issued this statement to a reporter

"If the President is not worried ne is in a different state of mind: from hundreds of Democratic candidates who will be running for office in 1948. Through no fault of their own they will be forced to carry the load of stolen ballots and plasted vault doors, all occurring as the aftermath of an election where Mr Truman admitted he had enisted the aid of the Pendergast yard at mionight 'is not worried, our his teern chatter just the same." In his address, Slaughter also referred to the theft of ballot boxes rom the Kansas City election commissioners' vault after the return of a number of indictments alleging vote fraud in the 1946 primary He called it a sordid tale, and a per fect example not only or the cupidity but of the stupidity of city ma chines

He mentioned the Kansas City vote fraud convictions which followed the 1936 election, and said the Pendergast organization "finally fell of its own weight" but "like the Phoenix, it managed to arise from the ashes - helped, in part, by "A small boy walking by a grave- a friendly national administration."

FDR Chose Wallace as Running Mate Despite Family Protests, Farley Says Nutt withdrew "at the request

James A. Farley said today the late President Roosevelt insisted on Henry A Wallace as his running mate in 1940 over the protests of Farley, Mrs Roosevelt and the Roosevelt sons Elliott and Frank-

In the fifth and last of a series of articles in Collier's on why he broke with the New Deal President, Parley reported that Cordell Hull, then secretary of state, Jesse H. Jones, then chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, or Paul McNutt, an avowed vice presidential candidate, could have been nominated for second place

But he wrote that Hull didn't want the nomination, Jones decided of his own accord to withdraw his name-from a list of. 17 potential candidates, and Mcof the President."

Farley said he went to the 1940 convention determined to let his name be placed in nomination for the presidency, not because he beheved he could win, but to express his opposition to a third term.

After Roosevelt had been nominafed, he called Farley and told him he had decided on Wallace as his running mate, wrote the former Democratic national chairman and postmaster general. Farley said he replied that he had a personal regard for Wallace's qualities but "the people look on him as a mystic and I think you'll regret it."

"He's not a mystic," Roosevelt snapped "He's a philosopher. He's post ideas. He thinks right. He'll help the people think"

Unionist, Clergyman Disagree on Training

NO official, Kermit Ebv. denounced miversal military training as "i.rually a call to arms" today, out Catholic priest, the Rev Dan A. Laning, praised it as "the best proection from a fighting war." Six witnesses testified before the House armed services committee on the training proposal advocated in the report by President Truman's special commission.

Three of them - an educator, the priest and a rabbi - supported The others — the labor officials, a representative of the Women's Christian Temperance union, and another rabbi - opposed it. Eoy, director of education and research for the CIO, said: "The report is not only a plea for universal training. It is virtually a call to arms. It is an acceptance of war as inevitable and a plea for a permanent war economy for the nation.". He added that "It is our opinion that the attitude of the commission was biased from the very begininng " Father Laning, of Mission, Tex., suggested a different approach. "Put military training in all our high schools, colleges, and uniersities," he told the committee. Why begin at the age of 18 Is there no responsibility before that?

YOUR BIRTHDAY Princess Elizabeth Introduces Philip ANNIVERSARIES At Garden Party in Buckingham Palace

oung Princess Elizabeth and her Margaret. handsome husband-to-be, Lt. Philip Mountbatten, "met the folks" today and not even a slashing rain dimmed the happiness in their faces.

Showered with congratulations, the newly engaged couple walked side by side through the milling crowds of a Buckingham Palace garden party for the cream of British society. They so monopolized the attention of 6000 guests that King George frequently had no one

Then, while the royal party took shelter in their tex tent from a sudden downpour, Elizabeth and Philip somehow made an island of privacy for themselves and talked gravely in the misty twilight of the things young lovers talk about.

"Doesn't she look lovely" the dowagers exclaumed. They referred more to the glow that illuminated the blue-eyed Princess slightly flushed face than to her apricothued costume and matching straw hat, left over from the family's South African tour

The 26-year-old Philip, chatting gaily and laughing with man-ofthe-house ease, caught the imagination of the younger women.

"Thank you—thank you so much, the Princess replied to those who pressed close to wish her happiness. To one guest she murmered: "It's like turning a new page"

Outside the palace a group of spectators—some had been there all day-watched the raincoated party guests come and go. They were Hanover street, surgical; Maude hoping for a personal greeting from Maurer, Spring City, medical; the Princess and her future escort. Kathryn Selagy, 213 High street, whose engagement was announced early today in a court circular. The crowds in front of the high iron gates of Buckingham Palace continued to grow, chanting "we want Elizabeth, we want Philip."

And after several hours the happy couple appeared on a palace bal-

The Princess and Philip smiled and waved at the crowd that pressed about the borders of the courtyard. Soon the young couple were joined

For her balcony appearance Elizabeth was dressed in a white evening gown and Philip wore a red rose in the lapel of his dinner jacket.

Little Jeanne Messers, 21/2, Newark N J., hugs her baby sister, Sharon, four months old, as her mother, Mrs. Catherine Messer, fondly watches. Joanne, sensing something amiss when Catherine suddenly stopped crying, rushed to the infant's crib to find her smothering under the blankets. The fast action of a police officer in applying artificial respiration restored the baby to consciousness.
